

Draft Resolution 1.0

Committee: United Nations Security Council

Agenda: Deliberation on the admission of Palestine as a full Union State to foster Inclusive Diplomacy and Equitable Representation

Sponsor: United States of America

Signatories: Israel, China, Japan, Egypt, Germany, United Kingdom, Iran, Qatar

The United Nations Security Council,

Recalling the previous commitment of the United Nations to uphold the principles of sovereignty, territorial integrity, and the right to self-determination for all people,

Underscoring the necessity of these principles in achieving a fair and lasting resolution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, as affirmed in previous resolutions of the council, including Resolution 242 and Resolution 338;

Recognizing the aspirations of the Palestinian people for self-determination and statehood, as expressed in numerous resolutions of the General Assembly;

Deeply concerned about the ongoing conflict and the humanitarian situation in the Palestinian territories as well as about the question of Palestinian's membership,

Determined to contribute to a peaceful and just solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, based on the relevant United Nations resolutions, international law, and the principle of two states living side by side in peace and security,

Considering the need to enhance the role of Palestine in the United Nations system, while addressing the complex challenges on the ground,

Affirming the importance of international law, humanitarian principles, and human rights in addressing the situation in the Palestinian territories,

Recognizing the efforts of the Palestinian people to build democratic institutions and promote human rights,

Determined to support the Palestinian people in their efforts to achieve statehood and build a viable and independent Palestinian state,

Mindful of the importance of international cooperation and solidarity in addressing global challenges,

Desiring to create a more inclusive and representative United Nations which fosters peace and diplomacy,

1. Decides to enhance the interim observer status of Palestine within the United Nations, granting it additional rights and privileges to participate in GA debates and activities, without full membership, thereby fostering a more inclusive and representative international community, wherein:
